Seminar for Educators:
Teaching about the Holocaust & Genocide

Registration required

Introductory sessions will provide even experienced teachers with new information, tools and resources.

Sessions include:

- Overview of the Holocaust (introductory)
- Rescue and Resistance (introductory)
- Operation Reinhard Camps (advanced)
- Teaching about Genocide (introductory and advanced)
- Special presentation from a Holocaust survivor

Presenters are “Master Teachers” - teachers who have had extensive training and experience in the subjects of Holocaust and genocide education. More information on the sessions and presenters can be found at www.wsherc.org/programs.

*In 2005, the United Nations General Assembly designated January 27th as an annual international day of commemoration to honor Holocaust victims. January 27th is the day associated with the liberation of Auschwitz.

Special thanks to Shemanski Foundations, Tulalip Tribe, Mukleshoot Tribe, 4Culture Lodging Tax Fund, the Jewish Foundation for the Righteous (JFR), and The Conference on Jewish Materials Claims against Germany for making this program possible.
